- The majority (83) said they would vote against legalization.

decriminalization law makes marijuana possession a civil offense not leading to jail unless another crime is committed such as intent to sell.)

- Police who responded to the survey said legalization would cost them more time and effort.
- Regardless of viewpoint, the majority were overwhelmingly against edibles, public use and advertising.
- 89% of the respondents think medical marijuana should be regulated by the FDA and treated as a legal medicine dispensed in pharmacies.

Be Aware of Problem Gambling Signs in Teens

Did you know? 44% of Maine high school students report that they have gambled something of value at least once in their lifetime (MIYHS, 2011). Gambling in all forms (online games, poker, lottery tickets, and betting on local teams) can be enticing to youth, especially young boys.

How do you know if there is a problem with your teen? Signs can include unexplained absences from school, missing money or valuables, and dropping grades. Be aware of the signs of problem gambling and know that there is help for you or a loved one. promotional messaging in retail stores (such as special price and discount signage, free branded promotional items, and general tobacco company in-store posters, signs, and other visible logos). The Star Store program works in combination with NO BUTS! (Blocking Underage Tobacco Sales), the Maine CDC program to stop the illegal sale of tobacco to minors.

CTBH [YOU]th was essential in the Star Store process for both stores. Youth met with the managers, conducted surveys, and recommended changes in tobacco signage and promotion.

And, on June 15th, the Choose To Be Healthy Coalition hosted a Responsible Beverage Server Training at the American Legion in York with five establishments in attendance: Sun and Surf, Anchorage Inn, Clay Hill Farm, The Cliff House, and Maine Brew Bus. The server training addressed how to check IDs, practices to reduce likelihood of excessive consumption, identifying and responding to early signs of excessive consumption, identifying intoxicated patrons and refusing service, and intervening to prevent intoxicated patrons from driving. A special thanks to Clay Hill Farm for making a donation towards the free training! FMI contact Devin and visit our No Buts/Star Store page.
