

Parent Check-In #2: Social Media Forum for Parents and Adolescents

Interactive workshop with FREE dinner and childcare* provided
March 25th from 6pm – 8pm
Kittery Community Center
120 Rogers Rd
RSVP at www.ctbh.org

Please RSVP for childcare by March 21st, limited to 20 children.*

This forum will give parents and their adolescents the opportunity to discuss the role of social media in their lives. Group work will involve activities and discussions that foster healthy social media discussions. This forum is for parents and adolescents to attend together.

Christine Rogerson graduated in 2007 from the University of New England with a Masters Degree in Social Work. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, passionate about social inclusion and sharing life's joy. She has spent much of her clinical work focusing on children and young adults with disabilities, struggles with mental health and those in foster care. She currently is employed with the University of New England's Social Work program working with students before and during their field practicums. She also is completing a Social Work Ph.D program at Simmons University in Boston.

Kyle T. Ganson graduated from Wheelock College in 2013 with a Masters Degree in Social Work. As a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in private practice, Kyle works with adolescent and adult clients experiencing a variety of mental health and life difficulties, including eating disorders, anxiety, depression, life transitions, relationship issues, and boy's/men's issues. Kyle is an adjunct instructor in the social work programs at the University of New England and Simmons University. He is also completing his PhD and is currently a doctoral candidate at Simmons University.

Creating a healthier Southern York County
www.ctbh.org

This free workshop is sponsored by the Choose To Be Healthy Coalition and the Kittery Youth Committee. A $5-$10 suggested donation is appreciated to help offset costs. Free parenting book to the first 10 families in attendance.